

EAST END TOUR

East end tour starts by visiting very special National Parks. One of which is, Amboseli National Park that is found at the slopes of Africa's highest mountain Mt, Kilimanjaro. It is in this Park you will be greeted by herds of elephants, among other animals. From there it will take you to the largest park in the country Tsavo National Park. Then you will travel down to the coast of Mombasa, whereby you will enjoy your stay in the most beautiful sandy beaches in the East Africa region. Welcome!

Day 1, Nairobi - Amboseli

Your Safari driver meets you on arrival at the airport. He can assist you by changing your money into local currency before your tour commences. Your safari starts by driving south side to Amboseli National Park, with one or two stops on the way. You arrive in your lodge in time for lunch and check in at your lodge. After lunch at 1600hrs, we drive in this beautiful national park that is famous for its stunning scenery with the 19,450 ft Mt, Kilimanjaro dominating the view. The Park which is situated on the Kenya / Tanzania border, is also known for its wildlife, especially the prolific elephant herds. The park covers an area of 3810 square km, the vegetation is varied but dominated by savannah. This allows viewing of the plain game ranging from Lion, Leopards, Cheetahs, Giraffes, and not forgetting hyenas.

DAY 2 and 3, Amboseli - Tsavo East

Checkout is followed by a drive from Amboseli to the junction of Emali and Mombasa road. Then we proceed on route and drive up to Tsavo East National Park arriving for lunch. Check in to your lodge, proceed on a short game drive coming back to your lodge in time for dinner and overnight.

Tsavo National Park, founded in 1945, is one of the most visited attractions in Kenya. In spite of its arid countryside and savanna vegetation, about 60 species of mammals and 400 different species of birds are to be found here. The Tsavo is particularly famous for its dramatic scenery and the red "elephants" which owe their colour to the dust prevalent in this area, as well as lions and cheetahs. There are many antelopes (Oryx, kudus, grants gazelles and giraffe gazelles), Burchell's zebras, Masai Ostrich. Where there is water, such as Mzima springs, crocodiles and hippos can also be seen.

DAY 5 - 9, Mombasa, (excursions are optional)

Mombasa city is the second largest city in the country. The rich history dating back over 1500 years, started with the Portuguese explorer, Vasco Da Gama who landed in 1498 and established a Portuguese trade along the coast. Arabs from Oman later took over the city leaving their mark on the region dominated by vibrant Swahili culture. Therefore you will find World class beautiful Hotels and Beaches in both the North and South Coast. This is all well and good, but do not limit your options to sun and sand there's a whole trial of adventure waiting to be enjoyed.

Mamba Village

You join your driver who will drive you to the largest crocodile farm in Africa mamba village. This farm has over 10,000 scaly reptiles on view in a fairly natural habitat. There is also a hatchery where you can see baby crocs hatch from eggs. Whatever you do, don't miss the feeding time. After lunch you may spend the afternoon on the beach, or return back to the mamba village and enjoy horse or camel riding.

Cultural centre

At Bombolulu workshops and cultural centre you can watch artisans who make quality handcrafts, and view their products in the large showroom. You will also find carvings, jewellery, statues, and a wide range of clothing at a fair price.

Haller Park

Bamburi Nature trail now known as Haller Park, is named after Rene Haller the agronomist who turned this barren area in to an ecological paradise. This area is rich in both wildlife and plants. Here you can see "Owen", a baby Hippo rescued after a tsunami separated him from his family.

Fort Jesus

You can visit Fort Jesus, which was built by Portuguese in 1593. Fort Jesus is a popular destination for foreign and local tourists, researchers and students. Also on display are artefacts excavated from the underwater ship wreck of the "San Antonio de Tana" which sank in Mombasa harbour off Fort Jesus in 1697.

DAY 10 – Tsavo National Park

Check out from your hotel, is followed by joining your tour driver who will drive you from Mombasa to Severin Tented Camp. This is a luxurious camp where they serve you early morning tea/coffee in your veranda and you will just love your stay at this wonderful camp. At 1600hrs you will proceed on an afternoon game viewing returning to your camp for dinner and overnight. Night game viewing is optional with prior arrangements.
